

CADC Search Committee Policy is as follows:

In order to secure the strongest possible candidates, CADC search committees must maintain strict confidentiality. Once a short list of candidates to be invited to campus has been determined by the committee, and the candidates have been notified, all short-listed candidates' vitae and letters of interest will be made available to faculty for their review and perusal.